

How to play Red light, Green light

Red light.

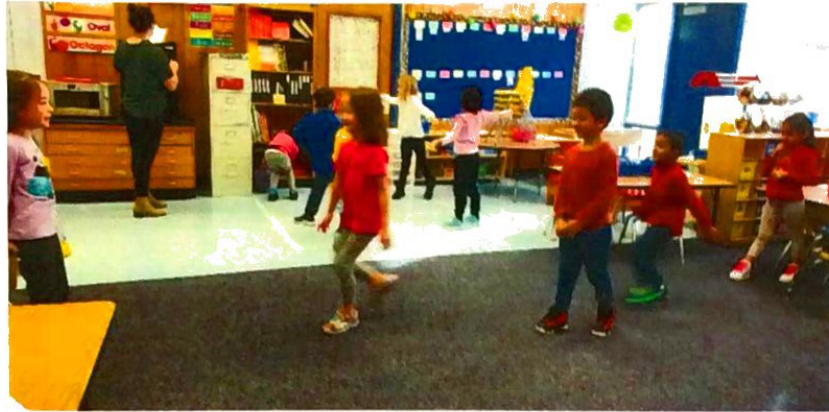

Pick one person to be the caller.
The caller stands on one side of the room or outside.

The rest of the group stands side by side in a line across from the caller. Make sure everyone is in the same line.

When the caller yells "green light" you walk fast towards the caller.

If the caller yells "yellow light"
you walk very slow towards the caller.

If the caller yells "red light" you need to freeze! Do not move or talk. If you do, you go back to the start line.

When someone reaches the caller, they win.

Then a new person is the caller.
The game starts over again.

